Numerous Appointments Approved, Vacancies Filled at Council Meet

NEW MEMBERS ADDED TO POLICE AND FIRE DEPARTMENTS

With a number of vacancies to be filled and personnel changes to be made, the City Council approved appointments to the fire and police departments in its regular meeting Tuesday evening in the Council Chambers.

Election of the following new members to the fire department was announced by Chief Heasley and approved by the Council: Mercer Duff, William Estes and Joseph Grippi, who fill the vacancies created by the resignation of J. Milton Steinberger, mayor, Joseph Burns and Owen Higgins, and Marvin E. Thomas, Samuel Y. Davis and Loren B. Pratt to the auxiliary fire department.

John Alfred Rutledge was appointed to the police department, and Harry Alvin Higgins was made city hall caretaker and an auxiliary member of the police force.

Mayor Steinberger was appointed to represent the Council on a joint committee with the Chamber of Commerce which will keep in close contact with the subdividers of the Hastings Ranch and report any information affecting the annexation to the city.

Leave of absence was granted to Ernest Mohler, member of the city street department, for a period of from three to six months.

The resignation from the recreation commission of E. W. Ward was presented and the council recommended that the commission select a new member to fill the vacancy and submit the name at the regular meeting for approval.

Mr. Bower of Sunnyside lane, in behalf of the residents of Brookside and Sunnyside lanes, extended an invitation to the council members, City Clerk and office employees, the Press, former Mayor Tom Schwartz and Councilman Bruce McGill to attend a weiner roast at 6 o'clock Saturday evening celebrating the surfacing of the two streets.

A turn-around in lot H, of Tract 2456 in Sierra Madre Canyon, serving Sunnyside lane, was decided to the city by J. H. Erb.

Mr. T. W. Neale advised the Council that he had contacted the Fireman's Fund Indemnity Co. regarding the city's fire insurance and found that the city was undercovered in the amount of $28,806. Neale was instructed to have this properly covered, the premium for four years being approximately $463.

City Attorney Dunn called for and received no protests against the vacation of the alley in the Amended Blumer Tract, north of Grand View.

A hearing on the Pacific Electric application to the California Railroad Commission for increase and adjustment of passenger fares, for Tuesday morning, was called off for an indefinite period due to strikes in Los Angeles.

Joe Swanson of the City Water and Street department stated that the new City Dodge truck has been delivered and recommended that the city's Ford Model A and Chevrolet Pickup be advertised for sale. A bid has since been received from the Wegge-Pelton Motor Co. of $500.71 for the two cars, but will be held until next meeting as it is the only bid.

A hearing of the pros and cons of interested citizens on the matter of dog impounding was postponed for two weeks due to the crowded agenda.

These Are Sierra Madre's Character Building Youth Organizations

BOY SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts were organized in 1922 with the formation of Troop 1. Troop 2 was formed in 1929; the Cub Pack in 1939; the Explorer Post in 1942, and Troop 3 in 1945. With a present membership of 9 to 17, there are 132 Boy Scouts today, including 55 Cub Scouts, 10 Senior Explorers, and 67 Troop Scouts. Y.M.C.A. Although Sierra Madre has no Y.M.C.A. organization of its own through affiliation with the Santa Anita District of Y.M.C.A., a recreation program is offered one afternoon a week at the local

JOE S. WEBER HEADS COMMITTEE IN THE "FIGHT FOR SURVIVAL" CAMPAIGN RELIEF IN EUROPE

Sierra Madre Jewry will support an eleven-point program for the relief, rehabilitation and resettlement of the 1,400,000 surviving Jews of Europe to be carried out by Christian and Jewish through the $5,000,000 United Jewish Welfare Fund "Fight for Survival" campaign, it was announced today by Joe S. Weber, chairman of the Sierra Madre division.

In outlining the program to rescue the Jewish survivors of Hitlerism from the ravages of starvation, disease, and homelessness in war-ravaged Europe, Weber emphasized that the local Jewish community was engaged in an unprecedented drive so that those who escaped annihilation at the hands of the Nazi oppressor shall not fall victim to the aftermath of the worst persecution in the history of civilization. The eleven-points include Relief and rehabilitation for approximately 200,000 Jews in France, Holland, Belgium and Italy. Supplementary aid to 100,000 Jews in the Displaced Persons Camp of Germany and Austria. Emergency Aid to 85,000 Jewish survivors of a total pre-war Jewish population of 3,500,000 in Poland, etc. Care reception and training of new immigrants into Palestine. In the upper grades Miss Newton's class won the first prize for the greatest amount collected, Mr. McElfresh won second. ### V.F.W. Busy With Club House Plans

Twenty-seven men were present at the recent VFW meeting when the following new members were taken in: John A. Rutledge, Albert Nyberg, Donald Fairbanks and Donald V. Miller.

The important project before the Veterans right now is the raising of funds for the proposed new Club House for the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion. Tentative plans are in the air for the location of such a building and investigation is being made for a suitable location. A dance has been arranged for May 25 at the Woman's Club House with Gordon Shaffer's Orchestra for the Club House benefit.

Arrangements were completed for the Poppy Day Sale, May 24 and 25 when the Civic club will be on the streets to assist in the sale.

The VFW Post will assist in the Memorial Day program and have offered to help in cleaning the local cemetery for the decorating of graves.

Still another activity of the Post is sponsoring the local All Star Baseball team which is doing good work.

Former Resident Speaker at Kiwanis

The speaker at the Kiwanis meeting Tuesday was a former well-known resident of this city, Bryant Essick, President of the Essick Mfg. Co., of Los Angeles, manufacturers of construction equipment and air conditioning machines. He was introduced by Robert Green, program chairman.

Mr. Essick came to Sierra Madre as a boy with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newman Essick, in 1913, residing at Sunnyside and Sierra Madre Blvd., until 1920, attending the local grade school and going through high school and Cal Tech while living here. He started the first Boy Scout Troop here in 1916 and Ed. Ward was the first Patrol Leader.

He spoke on "Post War Industrial Possibilities in Southern California" and showed that heavy industries are out at the west cannot compete with the East, on account of the high cost of freight on steel.

Private planes will not be practical for years, merely a hobby. Every military plane in the air today is obsolete. Commercial planes will have a limited field, as 1236 planes will take care of all the air lines in the world.

The west will have to go back to pre-war industries, furniture, cloth, apparel, gifts and arts, rubber, plastic and copper goods, he said.

A. S. Frost Succumbs To Heart Trouble Tuesday at Home

The Starving Tug at Your Heartstrings

Sierra Madre will have an opportunity starting today, to do its share in the great National Emergency Food Collection. A very sympathetic group responded to the summons of Mrs. Rosalie Goodwin, local chairman and met yesterday afternoon. Although the drive started through the nation May 12 it will be launched officially today in Sierra Madre. Mrs. Goodwin plans to carry out the solicitations on the same plan that Red Cross Drives were managed; a block by block canvass under the direction of captains will ensure a genuine response from here.

Mrs. Goodwin asked representations from organizations to meet with her and the group included the following: Francis Eakman, Kiwanis and VFW; Mrs. Copp, Woman's club; Mrs. Green, Jewish Organizations; Wm. Keith, A.V.C.; Thom, Durning, Lions club; Currie Burroughs, businessmen; Harold Roberts, Chamber of Commerce and American Legion. Fr. Smith from the Church of the Ascension was ill and unable to attend.

CASH CONTRIBUTIONS PREFERRED Much more food can be obtained from a given amount of money if it can be bought centrally and in large quantities. Also there will be a considerable saving in the cost of collections, packing and transportation.

Hot dogs, coffee and cake will be served by Mrs. W. E. Bowers of 686 Brookside lane, with Mrs. Charles Sears, Mrs. D. Metzgar, Mrs. I. H. Erb and Don Erickson assisting.

Untiring efforts of property owners concerned, with contributions of parcels of ground by some, have made paving possible through the 600 and 700 blocks of Brookside lane and across Sunnyside lane to Woodland drive.

PTA to Elect officers For Coming Year Today

Local Mothers Take Office on Wilson Junior High PTA

Wilson Junior High PTA had its installation of officers for the 1946-47 term on May 8 in the school visual education room before a very satisfactory audience. We were pleased to note that among those taking office were Mrs. C. Lauren Maltby as second Vice-President and Mrs. Floyd as Corresponding Secretary, both of Sierra Madre. Mrs. Max Colwell of Pasadena, an officer on the California State PTA board, was the installing officer.

GARDEN CLUB THEME WAS ROSES LECTURE BY VAN BARNEVELD

John H. Van Barneveld, President of California Rose, Inc., of Puente, was guest speaker at the May dinner meeting of the Garden club held in the Masonic Temple Monday evening. Mr. Barneveld, a well-known specialist on the subject, discussed roses and rose culture, illustrating with numerous specimens from his own gardens, and advising that successful, prolific roses are a combined result of proper planting (not burying), thorough "squirting" with the hose for drip, clean cutting of the flowers just above the third eye of the stem, daily watering

With its aim the support of the various youth character-building organizations of the city, the Sierra Madre Community Youth Drive gets under way today and will continue through May 23.

The drive is an annual appeal from local boys' and girls' organizations for funds to cover partial budget needs for the ensuing year. Consolidated as it is, the drive prevents the duplication of effort that would result if every group made a separate appeal and the community afforded the opportunity of contributing to all city youth groups in one gesture rather than through repeated solicitation. At the same time, contributions may be specified for whichever organizations desired.

Heading the drive is the Community Fund Committee with Eugene Lunsford and Robert Dodge as Co-Chairmen, and including the following members: R. C. Lewis, Al Wetherbee, Samuel MacElfresh, Carl Hansen and Noren Eaton.

Annual sponsor of the drive, Kiwanis club, in keeping with its program of support for local youth activities, makes the drive one of its major projects. For the past few years members of the Civic club have assisted the Kiwanis members in soliciting contributions.

Letters from the Fund Committee are being distributed among parents and the community in general by the boys and girls of the various organizations.

Since the drive will be concentrated after Pearl Harbor, instead of the usual approximate month's running, Sierra Madre citizens are being asked to respond promptly to the appeal. In contributing to the Youth Fund, citizens who are unable to participate actively in local boys' and girls' work may nevertheless take a definite part in building a fine youth program for their community.

Organizations represented in the drive, with budget requests as presented by each, are Boy Scouts, $927; Cub Scouts, $50; Girl Scouts, $370; Camp Fire Girls, $265; Toy Loan, $800; Y.M.C.A., $200. Total budget requests, $2,612. Any money in excess of these budget requests will be used for the completion and improvement of grounds of the Youth Center.

Food Will be Packed for Europe Instead of Usual Serving Tea

The election and installation of officers who will serve on the PTA board during the coming year will be held on Thursday, May 16, when the PTA meets for the last regular meeting of the year at 2:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. Mrs. Kenneth A. Leonard, first Vice-President of the Pasadena Council will conduct the ceremony. The yearly reports of the various officers will then be given, and Mrs. Gordon McMillan, delegate from Sierra Madre to the recent State Convention of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers, will give a report on the Convention. The Girls' Glee club will also entertain with two numbers.

Due to the appeal for the conservation of food in the United States so that needed supplies of food might be sent to the starving peoples of Europe, the PTA will not serve tea after the meeting as is customary, but instead will send a gift box of food to Europe. Other boxes will also be on hand, and everyone attending the meeting is asked to bring some foodstuffs to put in the boxes. The most needed articles are: concentrated lemon juice, rice, dried fruits of all kinds, soap, candy, cheese, canned meat and fish, salted nuts, dehydrated soup.

Citizens of Sierra Madre!

Our Youth Organizations Need Our Help

Once a year we are asked to do our share for the young people of Sierra Madre by making a contribution to the Community Youth Fund, for the support of our local character-building organizations, such as Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds; Girl Scouts and Brownies; Boy Scouts, including Cubs and Explorers; Toy Loan, Y.M.C.A., etc.

These groups are largely units of national organizations and their administration is in harmony with the wisdom the years have brought.

Most of us do not have the time to take an active part in boys' and girls' work, yet we all recognize its value and want to see the activities continued and this is the easiest way we can help.

If every group made separate drives, there would be duplication of effort and the public would feel that they were constantly asked for money. This way we give only once and the fund is apportioned according to the budgets submitted.

If anyone desires he may specify to which organizations he wishes his contribution to go.

Our city is growing rapidly and our youth activities have grown proportionately. There is a greater need this year than ever. Let's not let our boys and girls down.

Salvation Army Solicits Funds For the Year

During this period while we are getting adjusted to the post-war situation, we are likely to think chiefly of those who are seriously handicapped, not alone by physical injuries but by the loss of spiritual props. What would anyone do if he returned from the front and found no family; community respect gone because of military discipline; facing life with the stigma of a false step in a love affair; loss of a job or any other of the pitfalls that flesh is heir to? What would you do?

Fortunately there is an institution that ministers to just such needs. It serves where the need is greatest. Thousands appeal every year to its sympathetic, understanding members who by wise counsel and material help give courage to the discouraged, and set the feet of the hopeless on the paths of restored citizenship. I mean the Salvation Army. Friends here in Sierra Madre contribute each year to its support. Up to date more has come in than in the corresponding period of last year, but we could use more. A small portion of the total is left here for local use. If one wishes to help he may leave his contribution at the Sierra Madre Savings Bank.

Arthur O. Pritchard, Chairman of local committee.

Monday evening, May 20, the local Chapter will hold a birthday party for their Worthy Patron, Wallace Scott of this city, at the Temple.

YOUTH IS THE FUTURE

The glorious tomorrow for which thousands of lives were sacrificed belongs now to our boys and girls. How they will use that tomorrow depends on what we do to guide them today.

They are preparing to face the future-building a new world-one in which construction, not destruction-is the goal. The youth of today will be the world leaders of tomorrow.

Our Youth Organizations with their splendid history of accomplishment deserve our support. WE MUST NOT FAIL THEM!

DOMESTIC PROBLEM

Those Americans who think they are having a hard time because of the domestic help shortage shouldn't feel too sorry for themselves. Others are having difficulties, too. Take Emperor Hirohito, for instance. In order to make both royal ends meet he has had to retire 128 household members. Probably he hasn't more than a couple of hundred left. Oh, too bad!

The average rainfall in Sierra Madre is 18 inches annually.

TWO KIDS WITH QUINTUPLET KIDS... The goat population on the Foltz farm near Ludlow, Ky., is increasing rapidly these days. Five kids is a rare feat for one birth, even in goatdom. Shown here with the mother and her quintuplets are the proud Foltz children, Edward and Janet.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morse are leaving tomorrow for a 10 day trip to New Mexico, Arizona and Texas. They will be accompanied by Mrs. F. Jeffries and Mrs. A. Linn of Glendale.

Melvin L. Bowman with his brother, John Bowman, and wife of Los Angeles are making a two week visit with their mother and brothers at Hazen, Ark.

Mrs. A. Newmark has as her guests this week at 600 Woodland drive her sister, Mrs. P. Pottin and daughter, Joan of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Galvin, 1121 Rodeo road, are planning a trip in a jeep down the west coast to Mexico for June 1 to July 15. They are enjoying a three day trip this week to San Diego and Imperial Valley.

FAIRY BREAD

Come up here, O dusty feet! There is fairy bread to eat. There is my retiring room, Children, you may dine On the golden smell of broom And the shade of pine; And when you have eaten well, Fairy stories hear and tell.

Child's Garden of Verses —Stevenson.

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME

I overheard Mom and Pop chattering away in this vein this morning and wondered what they meant—then I heard a customer say, "well, if the flour mills of California do close I do not think we will go hungry as long as we can get this variety of fruits and vegetables." IMMEDIATELY I began to feel my IMPORTANCE so I decided to tell you some of the items I have in my department today...

STRAWBERRIES, CHERRIES, IMPERIAL VALLEY TOMATOES, ASPARAGUS, GREEN BEANS, RED ROSE POTATOES, (have you cooked these two together?) AVOCADOS, FRESH GOLDEN BANTAM CORN, GREEN ONIONS, RADISHES, ROMAINE, LETTUCE, WATERCRESS, EN-DIVE, FRESH PEAS and SQUASH of all varieties. California people do not appreciate these vegetables until they leave California and have to serve a salad made of canned vegetables. Then of course, I have FROZEN VEGETABLES and CHICKENS and anything AVAILABLE in frozen merchandise!

Curly says to tell you he was fortunate enough to obtain a large shipment of LOMA LINDA Martha Washington BEANS in tomato sauce (this is a carbohydrate so there is no need of serving bread with same). OLIVES, PICKLES: There is plenty of WORLD-OVER GRAPEFRUIT JUICE and TOMATO JUICE. I have a few of those DENMARK CLOTHES PINS left and they really have a good spring clip.

There are plenty of eggs—these may be served in many ways, give the youngsters an egg nog for lunch—nothing more nutritious—or a malted milk.

Fred Groetsema wrote Pop a nice letter and suggested we tell people to mix marshmallow whip with peanut butter and make sandwiches for the youngsters. They go for these in a big way because they are sweet, and children are hungry for sugar these days.

In our meat department they shake their heads and say "Suggest PRIME RIB and CHUCK ROASTS this week. We have plenty of POULTRY and FISH. In our delicatessen we have assorted CHEESES and SLICED MEATS, etc."

Pop says to tell you we are doing our best to supply you, we appreciate your patronage and loyalty.

Go little book, and wish to all Flowers in the garden, meat in the hall, A bit of wine, a spice of wit, A house with lawns enclosing it, A living river by the door, A nightingale in the sycamore.

—Stevenson.

THE BOOK SHELF

It doesn't cost much to be entertained. This could be qualified by saying it doesn't cost the book lover much to be entertained. Of course, there are a few people who say that they just aren't interested. But they don't read "The Book Shelf" anyway, so this isn't meant for them. Getting back to the inexpensiveness of reading, here's what California offers the library-minded. The state has 1,234 libraries, with 3,729 branches. There's plenty of books, some 50,000,000, to draw from. And to prove that California does have plenty of avid readers, there are 2,156,791 borrowers in the state. All this info comes from Mabel R. Gillis, State Librarian at Sacramento. She adds that the annual cost of maintaining these libraries totals $7,500,000.

Alice Marie Dodge, the noted president of Pen Women and California Writers' club, just returned to her Sacramento home from a visit to Guatemala where she was collecting local facts for a new story to be issued this coming autumn . . . Grosset & Dunlap, the publishers, are up in the air about a recent statement that the late Rev. Charles M. Sheldon received no royalties from his religious novel "In His Steps" which sold more than 23,000,000 copies in 40 years. Seems that Grosset & Dunlap padded Reverend Sheldon's pockets quite liberally when they published the book as a reprint . . . Recent Hollywood visitor was MacKinnay Kantor, author of "Glorious Morning." He conferred with Samuel Goldwyn about the filming of his novel-in-verse. Robert E. Sherwood did the screenplay . . . Check this one for 1947: MacMillan will publish the memoirs of Cordell Hull, the late PDR's Secretary of State. New books out which may hit best-seller list include Isabel Dick's "Country Heart," a story of far away places.

40,000 New Retailers

SACRAMENTO—The Board of Equalization predicts that there will be from 40,000 to 50,000 more new retail outlets established throughout California than existed prior to the war. Best opportunities are provided in new food stores, general stores, eating and drinking places, automobile sales agencies and service stations, officials point out. The board has issued more sales tax permits to private business concerns this year than in any pre-war year.

Political Facts

By DAN W. GREEN

The Only Democratic Candidate for State Assembly 48th District

The general issue in this campaign is: The liberal and progressive thought, as represented by the Democratic party and its candidates, is fighting the policy of reaction as represented by the Republican party and its candidates. The liberal Democrats recognize changing conditions, are aware of the necessity of legislation on social, labor and economic problems. The Republicans, as we contend, are quite satisfied to be reactionary, to stand still and to occasionally step backward toward the philosophy and programs of Harding, Coolidge and Hoover.

GREEN KNOWS THAT THIS COUNTRY WILL NOT MARK TIME. IT WILL GO FORWARD TO NEW AND BETTER THINGS.

Involved, too, in this campaign, is the question of courageous leadership. The Democratic candidate for Governor, Robert W. Kenny, has great talent for vigorous leadership.

In my own campaign for the democratic nomination for State Assembly, 48th District I am accepting these issues: To work for the enactment of a Fair Employment Practices Act which will give everyone an equal opportunity to secure and maintain employment without prejudice on account of race, religion, color or ancestry. This proposal was defeated at the last session of the State Legislature. Such legislation would protect the Protestant, the Catholic, the Christian Scientist, the Jew, the Negro—all groups of the people. IT IS THE ANSWER TO THE GERALD L. K. SMITH AND KU KLUX KLAN PHILOSOPHIES OF HATRED AMONG RACES AND RELIGIONS.

I believe in the two party system of government. The present practice permits Republicans or Democrats to appear as candidates on the tickets of the opposing parties and as candidates of that party. IT IS WRONG—I TEND IT THE DOUBLECROSS SYSTEM. It tends toward the one party system of Hitler. For that reason I have filed only on the Democratic ticket.

I am against these so-called Assembly Interim Investigating Committees, as renegades by Senator Jack Tenney's "un-American" (well named) committee.

I stand with the Democratic party for good and better protection of veterans; for liberal old age pensions; commensurate with the cost of living; for better child welfare legislation, and for all things and laws which make for the richer, better life of all people!

"The people want the truth about the corrupt lobbies in California. As a newspaper writer Dan W. Green has exposed many crooked political deals. He is needed in our State Legislature." Signed WILL ROGERS, Jr. and Congressman Ellis E. Patterson.

The FACTS of LIFE

A FACT is a true statement, which is not debatable. For example, "The earth is round."

An OPINION is an expression of thought or belief, which may or may not be a fact. For example, "Apples are nicer to eat than peaches."

It is my OPINION that the reason many parents neglect the economic training of their children is because THEY HAVE NOT THOUGHT OUT THE PROBLEM THEMSELVES. Maybe I'm wrong about this, but statistics show that NINETY FIVE OUT OF EVERY ONE HUNDRED MEN ARE "BROKE" AFTER THEIR LAST PAY CHECK.

Young men assume the obligations of marriage and raising a family. Sometimes they become disabled for life and have NO PRE-ARRANGED SOURCE OF INCOME. Sometimes they die "too soon." Then mother has to go to work to do the job father promised to do. Son Bill at sixteen has to forget that medical career. Daughter Susan gets her education behind a store counter instead of at U. S. C. The reason—NO PRE-ARRANGED SOURCE OF INCOME. Sometimes they "live too long." Their working days are over but the problems of food—shelter—clothing persist. Too old to work and NO PRE-ARRANGED SOURCE OF INCOME.

Such things would not happen—if they had been taught as children—THESE SIMPLE FACTS OF LIFE.

1. The Constant Demand in life is For—FOOD—SHELTER—CLOTHING.
2. The Number One Problem is—MAINTENANCE OF INCOME.
3. Tomorrow's Problem—will be THE SAME AS TODAY'S PROBLEM.—Families will NEED INCOME. Death—Disability—Old Age—DO NOT CHANGE THE PROBLEM. The only change is —A NEW SOURCE OF INCOME IS NEEDED.
4. A New Source of Income can only be created—OUT OF TODAY'S INCOME.
5. Today's Problem is Not Solved until Some Provision is MADE For The Solution of Tomorrow's Problem.

Do you agree with me that these five statements are true facts of life—not opinions?

If we—as parents—do accept these five statements as facts, then I am sure we will agree that it would be wise to teach our children this simple philosophy of life---

"When two people marry and start out in life to build their own home and raise their own family, they should first decide what they are going to need when—as inevitably it must—earning power stops—because of—death—disability—old age. They should make their plans for tomorrow—elaborate or modest—then create the amount of income necessary to provide for these needs of tomorrow—DOING IT OUT OF TODAY'S INCOME. They should Do This FIRST and THEN—Set Up a Plan of Living For Today Which The BALANCE Justifies. They should divide Today's Income between Today's Problem and Tomorrow's Problem on a basis of Judgment rather than EMOTION."

An understanding of these simple facts of life will make such a difference when "tomorrow" comes.

Town Tie-Ins

By Edith M. Pictor

Look in the windows of the Sierra Madre News. Bruce Russell's original cartoon "Ripening Grapes of Wrath" appearing in the Times of May 7, was personally presented to me.

Of course I asked for it, given me not only because of my connection with the paper but Russell's affection and interest in our town, once his home town. He lived here with his mother, Mrs. Flora E. Russell, from 1921 to 1931.

Russell always liked art, interested in it, studying at Poly high and U.C.L.A. and, he said, "I took all the correspondence art courses I could, concentrating on cartooning."

Too busy in studying, commuting to Los Angeles, he had no association with Hawthorne's withered Municipal Art League, though knew him from his former reputation as a Times cartoonist or the ever growing Dewey's Art Guild.

In 1927, a vacancy for cartoonist on the Times.

"I just stepped in, just happened to be the first. Most opportunities are like that."

When I reminded him of his predecessor, depicting Miss Los Angeles in ballooning skirt, bolero and high Spanish comb welcoming a new crop of oranges, sunshine or tourists, he laughed.

"I've tried to get away from that though as a newcomer to the paper and young, I had many directions."

Bruce Russell's cartoons, their original and forceful pictured message, good craftsmanship, apt and concise captioning have won their place in the newspaper world and the reading public. Ourville is proud of him and when I said "Honey you won't forget us," he chuckled emphatically.

"I SHOULD SAY NOT."

"I AM AN AMERICAN"

The Nation's custom of annually setting aside the third Sunday in May to welcome into the family of citizens those Americans who, during the year have reached their majority or have been naturalized, is a very good one.

Being a citizen of the United States carries with it much more responsibility today than ever before. The ceremonies on this occasion are designed to bring this fact home to the new citizens.

State, national and world conditions call for great alertness on the part of the public. Decisions of great moment are being made in government councils which may affect our lives for years to come. Every citizen should thoroughly acquaint himself with vital issues and should make his views known to those public officials charged with making important decisions. A postcard to a legislator or congressman is a simple, but effective way of doing this.

The conscientious citizen never fails to register, when necessary, and he votes at every election. He does not cast his ballot on guess work. Instead he looks into the qualifications of candidates and the pros and cons of measures to be passed upon and then votes accordingly.

The man or woman who can say "I am an American" is one of the most fortunate persons on the globe. His citizenship bestows great benefits upon him—the economic advantages of the American standard of living, the religious and political freedom of the American way of life. Let us cherish and protect these benefits by more earnestly fulfilling our duties as citizens.

Let us be Americans not merely in name but in deed and in spirit!

WAR LOSSES — A COMPARISON

A very convincing argument why every effort should be made to avoid a third world war was presented in the revised American casualty figures for the recent conflict. The total of dead, wounded, missing and prisoners was 1,113,689. This contrasts with 259,735 for World War I. Killed and missing exceeded 300,000 and were nearly six times greater than similar losses in 1917-18. The final figures give us more than a million reasons why we should work for a lasting peace based not solely or primarily on armed strength but on equality, justice and liberty for all peoples both great and small.

PLAIN TALK

It would seem from press reports coming out of Japan that the Russians have found in General MacArthur a man who does not hesitate to talk just as bluntly as they do. It must be somewhat of a new experience for them. In recently refusing three Soviet requests for a greater part in outlining the occupation policy of Japan the General told the four-power Allied Control Council that its work is "exclusively advisory and consultative." In other words, he reminded the Council in general, and the Russians in particular, that he is the boss in Japan and will continue to act in that capacity. A spokesman for General MacArthur also charged the Soviet member of the Council had made no effort to get accurate information on at least one of the complaints made by that member. From this distance it is difficult to determine what, if any, justification there is for the Russian position. But of this we are sure, that a little plain talk when dealing with them will do more good than harm.

CHISELERS, LOOK OUT!

Individuals who collect unemployment compensation while holding other jobs are in for some trouble. The California Employment Department's fraud and investigation unit has more than 100 agents now on the trail of those who are illegally collecting jobless benefits. State unemployment payments are now running around $18 million to $20 million weekly. According to J. C. Reimel, who heads the investigation unit, some persons who are laid off apply for jobless benefits and then later go to work in an industry such as agriculture where the State has no record of their unemployment. Anyone convicted of chiseling on the unemployment fund may be fined $500 or may be given "compulsory" room and board for six months—in jail.

FOREIGN TRADE WEEK

"World Trade Puts Men to Work."

Under this slogan America is celebrating Foreign Trade Week from May 19 to 26, as the normal channels of international commerce are gradually being restored after their long disruption during the war.

Today as the barometer of Europe's economic influence declines we find that the trade potential of most nations bordering the Pacific is rising. This means that the center of world commerce is shifting toward the Pacific area. This means, too, that California's place in world commerce is growing more important daily.

WILL THE PUBLIC "STRIKE" BACK?

While the "strategy" of John L. Lewis has stymied progress on a new coal contract, the rest of us have had to stand by and watch the Nation's coal supply dwindle rapidly. In the wake of that dwindling supply has come reduced steel operations and a creeping paralysis over industrial affected directly and indirectly by the lack of coal.

How long will the Nation stand by while one strike after another throws its entire economic machine out of gear? Some labor leaders still seem unaware of the growing resentment of the general public toward the tactics which delay strike settlements while the public suffers.

This is not to say that all industrial friction is solely the fault of labor, but we have had too many instances in which labor leaders have put their personal desires for power above the public welfare.

In one of its latest inquiries, the Gallup Poll has found that 60 per cent of the American people favor legislation outlawing strikes in public service industries, such as transportation, telephone, electric, and gas companies. Public opinion is also reported heavily in favor of laws that would curb labor unions as a means of reducing the frequency of strikes.

Unless labor wakes up to the growing resentment against the methods of some labor leaders, it may find itself shackled by severe laws.

Our economy cannot stumble along indefinitely without collapsing into a depression if one work stoppage after another is allowed to go unchecked. The public, as well as labor and management, has some "rights."

AROUND AND ABOUT

SOUTH ENGLAND—Oxford to Stratford-on-Avon—It is not possible within the brevity of these sketches and the shortness of my stop at Oxford to give more than a superficial impression of the town and colleges. My stop-over was only for part of a day and night, and the time was mid-July, during what is called the long vacation, which follows the eight-weeks' term of Easter and Trinity. The latter includes the Commencement period and culminates in the height of the social season of garden parties, teas, dances, and the eight-oared "bumping" races. A vivid, though somewhat satirical, picture of certain phases of this season may be perused with chuckles in reading Max Beerbohm's extravaganza-novel, "Zuleika Dobson." Like "Commencement week" in American universities, "Commemoration Week" at Oxford is a period of gaieties and ceremonies, and the stillness and emptiness which envelops the various college buildings and yards when the Oxford undergraduates have gone on the long vacation makes an effect which is perhaps only a little less dreary to the casual visitor than the same season on the deserted campus of a Kansas prairie college—which is very dreary indeed.

However, there is a most important difference. Oxford University is in the heart of a city of some 80,000, and many of the college yards and the walls of the buildings of the University's 20-odd colleges border the High Street, one of the noisiest, most traffic-jammed, horn-toting thoroughfares in my limited gallery of memories. For 500 years before the University existed, history tells us, the town of Oxford (oxen ford) was a busy, prosperous, and independent borough. Then when the University grew powerful in the Middle Ages, it gradually but completely crushed the town, deprived it of its former self-government and "reduced it to a cluster of lodging houses." But all that was changed long ago. Nowadays, of course, both the University and the town have their own members in Parliament and get on together well enough, in spite of traditional Town-and-Gown friction, which is about the same epidemic malady of college towns the world over, but it seemed to me that the Town is now having the last word in sheer Noise. Indeed it seemed to me, as a casual visitor, that either the University or the Town had become an anachronism in the face of the other—another instance in ture, too, has here been encouraged and conjured with to do her best with bright green velvety lawns and terraces, well-clipped hedges, and trees whose dense foliage makes cool canopies for paths and benches. There are gorgeous flower gardens, like that for which St. John's College is famous, and Magdalen, regarded by many as Oxford's most beautiful college, has still its centuries-old deer park and a meadow containing a shaded avenue, "Addison's Walk." Here as an undergraduate the future famous co-editor of the "Tatler" and the "Spectator" may have cogitated upon some of the ideas which were to give his essays on manners and morals credit for making middle class morality and "virtue" itself popular for a time, even with the "decadent" aristocracy of the 18th century.

Like its great rival, Cambridge on the Cam, Oxford is well provided with water for swimming and boating, lying as it does between the Thames and its tributary, the Cherwell, and spreading out beyond them into green meadows and grassy, watery backwaters and rivulets. These and the playing fields provide the undergraduate with a healthy proportion of outdoor life, which most of them take to, apparently, as naturally as a duck to water. Everybody, nearly, "goes out for" some sport, and there is very little of the crowding of thousands into grandstands to witness the few, nor is it regarded as necessary to "organize" cheering, as with us. Everything is spontaneous and rather casual, and though a Rhodes Scholar from the U. S. A. is not less welcome for possessing athletic prowess!

In spite of being highly selective, within its rigid traditions Oxford has its own kind of democracy. Its sports and burlesques are open to merit and brains and native gentility have more than an even chance with wealth and the patent of nobility. The university government is basically popular in its representation. The Council, which meets very frequently, perhaps weekly, consists of the chancellor, vice-chancellor, "immediate ex-vice-chancellor" and proctors—to which are added, through election by the congregation of the university, 18 other members consisting of heads of houses and professors. All legislation is submitted to the Convocation. And the university sends two members to Parliament to see that Government does not forget the importance of Learning. Law and order are so well established in England as to make it unnecessary (as it is impossible!) for non-collegiate boards of trustees to become alarmed and "take steps" as frequently happens in our democratic America, over the utterances and demonstrations of undergraduates whose boldly expressed opinions ranse the whole gamut from purest White through Pink to deepest Red. "Reactionary" Tories in Oxford may dine in Commons daily with would-be "violent" Communists and discuss their differences with good-natured poise.

Yet nowhere in Europe, probably, is the individual consciousness of class distinction more acutely felt and consciously maintained than in this same Oxford where the sons of noblemen and of tradesmen live under the same roof and eat the same food. But it is all handled in a very "decadent" manner—because the individuals usually subordinate their private antipathies to the social "code" accepted by all. Witness those two very different classmates—"one roof sheltered both of them"—the doctored, industrious Noaks and the brilliant and versatile Duke of Dorset—each of whom has fallen in love at sight with that incomparable vampire, Zuleika. Max Beerbohm, himself an Oxonian during the idyllic "Nineties," informs us that the Duke "saw in Noaks his own foil and antithesis, and made a point of walking up the High with him at least once in every term." And that "Noaks, for his part, regarded the Duke with feelings mingled with idolatry and disapproval." Thus the social classes mingle in Oxford, but never quite fuse. Or as the sly Beerbohm so aptly describes his Alma Mater, "Oxford is a plexus of anomalies."

BRITISH CHAMP... Bruce Woodcock, British empire heavyweight champ, working on favorite American ice cream cones. He arrived from England for fight with Tami Mauriello at Madison Square Garden.

MODELING FOR MOPPETS... Tiny tots staged their own fashion show at the Children's Aid Society, New York. Latest creations in children's clothing were shown by the little models, including Mary Panico, front.

Now is the time to set out summer flowers such as aster, annual chrysanthemums, petunia, phlox, zinnia, marigold, verbena, portulaca, tithonia and morning glories.

LT. GOV. HOUSER ENDORSED FOR SUPERIOR JUDGE

Lieutenant Governor Frederick F. Houser, who is a candidate for Judge of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, has the vigorous endorsement of the Los Angeles (city and county) Bar Association, because of the heavy majority vote given him in the Association's ballot poll of all the county's 6,000 lawyers and judges.

Houser received approximately sixty per cent of the total vote cast, and nearly 600 more votes than the combined vote of his two opponents. This strong support demonstrates the high regard which Houser's fellow lawyers have for his ability and qualifications, and for his legal experience acquired during his sixteen years of active law practice.

PASADENA PLAYHOUSE

World premiere of George Jean Nathan's "The Avon Flows" comes to Pasadena Playhouse stage from May 15 to 26.

Orchestration of three of Shakespeare's plays, "Romeo and Juliet," "Othello" and "Taming of the Shrew," is the Nathan attempt to prove what might have happened had Romeo and Juliet lived. Not a word or phrase or line in the original texts has been changed. To achieve the continuity characters have been re-identified with steady integrity, naturalness and remarkable insight.

Emily Lawrence, late of the Katherine Cornell "Barretts of Wimpole St." New York Company, and Paul Langton, Metro-Goldwyn-Myer featured player, enact the Romeo-Juliet roles, with Frederick Berest, Mary Whaley, Dabbs Greer, Alex Gerry, Che Moody and others in chief support. George Phelps directs. "Angels Amongst Us," current Playhouse stage attraction, closed its run on Sunday, May 12.

In Sierra Madre, "Living is leisurely and pleasant."

J. Clark Sellers to Speak at Masonic Dinner Tuesday

The Sierra Madre Masonic Lodge has arranged another of its "get to know each other" dinners at 6:30, Tuesday, May 21; tickets are necessarily limited to 100 and reservations should be made at once. Through the kind offices of Grover Summers the entertainment committee has obtained J. Clark Sellers, handwriting expert of national fame, for the speaker of the evening. He will relate his experiences in connection with many important criminal cases, including the Lindbergh case.

All members of the Lodge are now making their contributions to the Masonic Homes Endowment Fund. This fund makes it possible to maintain the Home for the Aged at Dacota, Calif., and the Home for Children at Covina. The First Degree in Masonry was exemplified at the meeting May 14, and the Master Mason Degree will be conferred May 28.

ALA ACTIVITIES

The first Poppy Day of peace should see all America honoring the war dead by wearing the memorial poppy said Poppy Chairman Mrs. Orelia Stinman. "It should see the most generous contribution in history to aid the disabled, their families and the families of the dead." Unit 297 has ordered 1000 poppies which will be sold on the streets of Sierra Madre, Friday and Saturday, May 24 and 25. Poppy Posters were submitted at the meeting at Rose Galkin's on Thursday evening. Judges will announce the winners at the next meeting of the Unit.

Three new members were welcomed, Mrs. Bessie Seabold, Gold Star Mother, Mrs. Betty Shelton and Mrs. Rose Galkin. Ora Olsen was appointed Comp Fire sponsor for next year. Next Monday evening a proud delegation of members will accompany Miss Mary Ann Reynolds, winner of the District Essay Contest prize, to the District Meeting where she will receive the award.

ALL-STARS MET MONROVIA LAST NIGHT

While winning their first game from Monrovia Wednesday night at the School Grounds, the Sierra Madre all star team, sponsored by the local VFW Post, the boys convinced the fans that the city is in for many good evenings of ball this summer.

Monrovia came back last night to even the score with the following line-up: Kiggins, ss; LaLone, cf; Lacy, c; Evans, 1st; LaLone, lf; Marsh, 3rd; Miller, 2nd; LaLone, rf; Marrow, p. The team is backed up by some good reserves.

Increase Pay For Teachers Or Else

An appeal by California public school teachers for an adequate living wage will be carried to the people of California today.

It will take the form of an initiative petition to put on the November General Election ballot a measure establishing a minimum salary of $2,400 a year and providing for increased State financial support of the public school system.

"Unless we make the teaching profession more financially attractive to the highest-type young men and women, California's public school system must inevitably deteriorate. We will pay a heavy penalty for that deterioration in juvenile delinquency."

Mrs. Rollin Brown of Los Angeles, new State president of PTA, stressed that only 400 elementary teachers were graduated in California this year, and candidates for teacher credentials have dropped to one-third of the pre-war level. School attendance, already at an all-time high, is expected to double within five to 10 years, confronting the school system with an impossible situation.

Percy F. Bennett, 67 Windsor lane, is making a business trip to Washington and Canada, expecting to be gone two weeks.

Legion Team Plays Opening Game Fri.

The Sierra Madre American Legion ball team will play its first League game Friday evening at the school grounds, according to Manager Waverly Pratt. Their opponents will be the Edison Post team of El Soreno and Alhambra. The Covina game was postponed on account of rainy weather last week.

The probable line-up will be: Billy Kiggins, pitcher; Herbert

Lacey, catcher; Earl LaLone, 1b; Don Miller, 2b; Wm. Evans, 3b; Red Burt, ss; Richard LaLone, Adolph Funches, Bird McRoberts and Allan Robertson, fielders.

Local students of Wilson Junior High school participating in the All-City Band Concert May 18 in the Pasadena Civic Auditorium are Dwight Schultz, Donna and Diana Norris, Ernest Noble, Victor Morgan and Chandler Wilcox.

Mrs. Helen Dorcas was taken to the Los Angeles Sanitarium about a week ago and remains very ill. During her absence Mrs. Gentry will take over the leadership of the Wistaria Blue Birds.

Mrs. Alice Kerr, Robert Kerr, William Walker of Reseda and Miss Jessie Dunning were luncheon guests of Mrs. W. P. Caley Tuesday.

Miss Marion L. Vannier, 153 S. Hermosa gave a luncheon in the Hill-top dining room of Padua Hills honoring Mrs. M. Bergien on her birthday. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hopewell, Mrs. R. D. Hall, Mrs. Elizabeth Goodhue, Miss Agnes Moeller and Marshall Ames. The birthday cake was presented by the Mexican players with their lovely birthday song in a colorful procession.
